Choice Hotels NEC Player of the Week Justina Udenze, Central Connecticut

Sr., C, 6-1, Hamden, CT/Hamden

Udenze was dominant down low during Central Connecticut's sweep through Brooklyn. The senior center averaged 21.0 points and 10.5 rebounds per game in road victories over Long Island and St. Francis (NY). Helping Central close out the regular season on a high note and secure the No. 6 seed in the upcoming NEC Tournament, Udenze shot 55.6 percent (20-of-36) from the floor. During the Blue Devils' first stop in Brooklyn, Udenze put up her fifth double-double of the season in a 68-62 triumph over LIU. The 6-foot-1 post player tallied 19 points and 12 rebounds to help Central avenge an earlier loss to the preseason NEC favorite Blackbirds, who were vying for an NEC Tournament home game. Two days later at St. Francis (NY), Udenze eclipsed the 20-point mark for the third time in NEC play. The veteran Blue Devil poured in 23 points, on 11-of-18 shooting, and grabbed nine rebounds. Udenze, who is averaging 11.8 points and 7.1 rebounds per contest, has come on strong down the season's stretch run. All three of her 20-plus point performance came in the month of February.

Choice Hotels NEC Rookie of the Week

Brittany McQuain, Quinnipiac

Fr., F, 5-11, Independence, MO/William Chrisman

McQuain closed out the regular season by notching a pair of double-doubles, running her rookie year total to seven. The freshman forward averaged 14.0 points, 11.5 rebounds, and 5.0 assists per contest against the NEC's Garden State contingent. The first-year Bobcat totaled 64 minutes of court time in games against Fairleigh Dickinson and Monmouth. Clearly possessing an ability to pass from the post, McQuain dished out 10 assists while committing only one turnover over the two-game sample. The 5-foot-11 post player had 13 points, on 5-for-10 shooting, and 13 rebounds in a 75-56 triumph over FDU. She put up 15 points, 10 rebounds, and six assists in the Bobcats' regular season finale, a near-upset of Monmouth. The freshman from Missouri caps the 2010-11 regular season campaign securing her second Choice Hotels weekly honor. McQuain first received recognition back on January 25 for her efforts in wins over Mount St. Mary's and Wagner. Her 7.2 rebounds per game average ranks 10th overall amongst NEC leaders, and second amongst the conference's freshmen.

25 Things You Should Know Heading into the 25th annual Northeast Conference Women's Basketball Tournament

The Northeast Conference's automatic bid to the Big Dance will be once again be there for the taking when the 25th annual NEC Women's Basketball Tournament tips off on Saturday, March 5.

Top-seeded Saint Francis (PA), the defending tournament champion, will look to secure a NEC record 11th NCAA Tournament berth, but will have seven others standing in its way. Meanwhile, Long Island, the NEC coaches' preseason favorite, will look to do what the Red Flash did last year by winning the tournament as the No. 5 seed, but will have to start out on the road against a hungry Robert Morris quad that is eyeing its first title since 2008.

No one in this field, including No. 8 seed Fairleigh Dickinson, should be overlooked. The Knights, who look to pull the second-ever No. 8 over No. 1 upset in NEC history, played a pair of tightly-contested games against the regular season champion Red Flash this year. After dropping a three-point decision at SFPA in overtime, FDU knocked off the Flash in Hackensack.

In fact, all four quarterfinal matchups features teams who split their regular season series with one another.

In other words, there a chance the 2011 NEC Tournament could be turned upside down. Stay tuned as the madness awaits.

1. The Tournament field contains seven holdovers from last year's installment. Fairleigh Dickinson is the lone participant not in the 2010 field. The Knights, who have ended a one-year absence from the postseason, took the spot that Wagner held last year.
2. The 2011 NEC Tournament will follow a different format than the one that has been employed the past three seasons. Unlike the last three when all quarterfinal and semifinal games were played at one pre-determined site, high seeds will host throughout this year's event.
3. Six of the eight teams in this year's field have won at least one Tournament title with Central Connecticut State and Quinnipiac still searching for their first.
4. Saint Francis (PA) owns the top seed for the eighth time in its history. The Red Flash won last year's event as the No. 5 seed.
5. Robert Morris (2007 & 2008) and Sacred Heart (2006 & 2009) are each in search of their third NEC crown in six years.
6. No team seeded lower than No. 4 had ever won the NEC Tournament until SFPA changed that in 2010.
7. Seeded fourth in 1991, Robert Morris was the lowest seed to ever win the tournament title heading into last year's event.
8. Mount St. Mary's has been absent from the NEC Tournament each of the past two seasons following an unprecedented run of 20 consecutive postseason.
9. Sacred Heart, who has qualified for the NEC Tournament every year since it joined the league in 1999, owns the longest active streak for consecutive appearances (12). Quinnipiac is right behind with 11 straight trips.
10. The No. 1 seed has won it all 13 times in 24 years.
11. In the 17 years since the Northeast conference discontinued the six-team bracket, the No. 1 seed has won 11 times and has only missed the final on four occasions.
12. The 1991 RMU Colonials are the only team to win the tournament while finishing the season with a less than .500 winning percentage (13-17).
13. Saint Francis (PA) has the most tournament wins (36) and most NEC titles (10) of any conference team.
14. The Red Flash's record win streak of 29 straight tournament victories came to a halt at the hands of Sacred Heart in the 2009 NEC Championship Game.
15. Monmouth has made it through to the semifinals more frequently than anyone in the league. The Hawks have been amongst the Tournament's final four on 15 occasions, including each of the three of the last four seasons.
16. The two lowest seeds to ever meet in the Championship Game were No. 4 Robert Morris and No. 6 Wagner back in 1991. RMU prevailed, 69-61.
17. No team has ever reached the century mark in a game during tournament time. Saint Francis (PA) and Monmouth are tied for the top single-game point total (92). The Red Flash did it against Monmouth in 1994 while the Hawks scored 92 against St. Francis (NY) en route to the title.
18. The largest margin of victory in a tournament game (33) came in Robert Morris' 72-39 triumph over Central Connecticut State in 2005.
19. Only four players have earned both Tournament MVP and Player of the Year accolades in the same season. Monmouth's Linda Wilson was honored with both awards during the league's inaugural season in 1986-87, followed by Mount St. Mary's Susie Rowlyk in 1993-94 and Saint Francis (PA)'s Jess Zinobile in 1999-2000. Most recently, Amanda Pape of Sacred Heart was tabbed with both honors in 2005-06.
20. Three of the five members from the 2010 All-Tournament Team are back in 2010. Saint Francis (PA) senior Allison Daly will aim for a third consecutive All-Tournament Team selection. Meanwhile, Long Island's Ashley Palmer and Chelsi Johnson also return from last year's squad. Like, Johnson is two-time honoree as she first accomplished the feat as a freshman in 2008. Although they weren't on the 2010 squad, Saint Francis (PA) junior Brittany Lilley and Sacred Heart junior Callan Taylor also carry All-Tournament credentials that date back to their rookie year (2009).
21. Quinnipiac's Ashlee Kelly redefined "monster game" in 2004 when she poured in 38 points and grabbed 28 rebounds during a quarterfinal showdown with FDU.
22. Two days after her tournament record 28-rebound performance, QU's Ashlee Kelly hauled in 26 boards against Saint Francis (PA) to claim the top two spots on the tournament's all-time list.
23. All eight head coaches have been here at least once before.
24. Sacred Heart's Ed Swanson has more NEC Tournament wins (12) than any other coach in this year's eight-team field. RMU's Sal Buscaglia is second with 10.
25. Since 1994, the NEC Tournament champion has received an automatic bid to the NCAA's Big Dance. Mount St. Mary's earned the league's first-ever auto bid and faced Iowa in the 1994 NCAA First Round.

2011 NEC Tournament Field Finalized

Regular Season Champ Saint Francis (PA) Takes Top Seed in Eight-team Tourney

Saint Francis (PA) will be the No. 1 seed for the eighth time in the 25-year history of the Northeast Conference Women's Basketball Tournament. The defending champion Red Flash, who take aim at an unprecedented 11th conference crown, have earned home-court advantage throughout the eight-team championship tournament, which is set to begin with quarterfinal round play on March 5.

The semifinal round of the 25th annual NEC Tournament presented by Ruby Tuesday will take place on March 8. The 2011 Northeast Conference Championship Game, will reach a national television audience via ESPNU for the fourth year running, is set for March 13 at 3:00 pm. All games will be played at the home facility of the higher seeded team.

In addition to the Red Flash, Monmouth, Sacred Heart, and Robert Morris will host quarterfinal round contests on Saturday.

Saint Francis (PA) (19-11, 14-4) survived a scare from Mount St. Mary's in their season finale to clinch the program's eighth regular season championship and secure the top seed. Susan Robinson Fruchtl's Red Flash, who have advanced to the final each of the past two years, will tip off their title defense against No. 8 Fairleigh Dickinson (14-14, 7-11). The Knights are back in the postseason after a one-year absence. After qualifying for the NEC Tournament in the first two seasons under head coach Pete Cinella, Fairleigh Dickinson finished one game out of the final spot last year. The game will showcase the NEC's top-two leading scorers. Saint Francis (PA) senior Samantha Leach (Mount Sterling, OH/Miami Trace) paces the circuit at 17.3 points per game, while FDU junior Mariyah Laury (Orange, NJ/Orange) and her 15.7 ppg sit in second.

Having completed its best regular season in the last quarter-century, Monmouth (21-8, 13-5) rides a six-game win streak into its third NEC Tournament appearance in three seasons under Stephanie V. Gaitley. The Hawks defeated Quinnipiac (14-15, 11-7) in the season finale to secure the No. 2 seed, their highest since 1997, and will turn around to face the Bobcats again in Saturday's quarterfinal matchup at the Multi-Purpose Activity Center. The appearance will be the 11th straight in the NEC Tournament for Quinnipiac.

Only Sacred Heart, which has never missed out on the event, currently owns a longer streak than the rival Bobcats. Ed Swanson's Pioneers have qualified for the NEC Tournament every single year since joining the conference for the 1999-2000 campaign. Holding the No. 3 seed for the second consecutive season, Sacred Heart (18-11, 12-6) will welcome No. 6 Central Connecticut (18-10, 11-7) to the Pitt Center in a game that is sure to garner a great deal of attention in the Constitution State. Beryl Piper's Blue Devils have made it through to the NEC semifinal round in each of the past two seasons.

Robert Morris (15-13, 12-6) won its final two games and received some help to steal the No. 4 seed and a quarterfinal home game on the final day of the regular season. The Colonials, who won back-to-back NEC titles in 2007 and 2008, will entertain No. 5 seed Long Island (19-10, 11-7) at the Sewall Center on Saturday. The Blackbirds, who fell to Saint Francis (PA) in the 2010 final, were favored to win the 2011 crown after finishing atop the NEC's preseason coaches' poll this past summer. The last postseason meeting between these two teams took place in the 2008 NEC Championship Game with RMU prevailing at home.

The 25th annual NEC Women's Basketball Tournament will consist of an eight-team playoff format with all games played at the home of the higher seed. After the quarterfinals, the teams will be reseeded so the highest remaining seed plays the lowest remaining seed in the semifinals
